FROM LEVIATHAN MINES

Mr. and Mrs. William Brown and children are in Kingman from the Leviathan mines.

Food will win the war--save it.

Purely Personal

Mrs. Bryan Mensch who was taken to a Los Angeles hospital a few weeks ago to undergo a serious operation, is said to be recovering rapidly.

Charles Roe returned to the Round Valley ranch this week, after a short visit with his family in Kingman.

Mrs. Lillian Winslow, who has been visiting with relatives in Kingman the past month, returned to her home in Nevada by way of San Francisco last Thursday. Mrs. Winslow is a Mohave county girl, and has many friends and relatives here.

B. E. Shute, the efficient superior court reporter, has again taken up the reins of duty after several weeks spent on the coast.

Miss Minnie Hartz, one of Kingman's most charming young ladies, is visiting with Mrs. William A. Davidson of Treasure Hill.

Supervisor Stephens is a Kingman visitor.

Sheriff J. N. Cohenour and County Attorney S. D. Stewart, visited Chloride today on official business.

Leigh Hamilton, formerly a resident of Kingman, is now located in New York City at the Exide Battery depot, 101-107 West End avenue. Leigh is a nephew of our genial townsman, John Hamilton, and since leaving here has taken up electrical engineering, in which he has made good, as indicated by his connection with the well known company mentioned above.

LEVIATHAN MINE VISITORS

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Kelley, of the Leviathan mines, have been visiting in Kingman the past several days. Mr. Kelley is general manager of the Leviathan Mines company, owner of the greatest molybdenite mines in the United States.

GOES TO COAST

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Conway, accompanied by Allen E. Ware and son departed for the coast Thursday last, where they will remain a month or two.

CORPORATION COMMISSIONER

A. W. Cole, wife and daughter, of Phoenix, were in Kingman the past several days, having made the trip from the capital city by auto. Mr. Cole is a member of the present State Corporation commission and is seeking re-election to office. He will visit the greater part of the state between this time and the primary election in September.

VISITS THE NORTHWEST

Cy Childers, one of the old time miners of the county, has just returned from a trip to Oregon, where he visited with two brothers and sisters that he had not seen in many years. He also visited with his daughter and other relatives. The entire trip from Kingman to Oregon and return to Southern California was made by automobile and he was able to see more of the country than otherwise. He spent some time in Los Angeles and San Bernardino with old friends and relatives. The trip was a great one and Cy certainly enjoyed it.

KINGMAN BOYS

TROUNCE WALLAPAI
The Kingman ball team beat the Wallapai in the game at the local diamond last Sunday, but the game was not played with the usual vim that the teams display. The final score was about 14 to 7. The Indians held the local boys down for five or six innings, but after that they went to pieces and the whites landed heavily and made numerous scores.
